Dog Club Trial Summary

The Trial of Voting Collusion

August 12, in the year of o'White

Demi Dog and Chief Dog were accused of voting conspiracy during the ausda round at Dogmass o'White. TondaBog brought up the issue to the Secretary of Judgment and after some reluctance, the Secretary had no choice but to call a trial. The evidence was much too damning. The Secretary of Ceremonies was promptly notified and the trial date was set for August 21, in the year of o'White.

August 21, in the year of o'White

The moment of truth was finally upon us. Some sitches were anxious the foost, other sitches wanted justice to be done. Chief Dog was waiting on the FOREVERUMS for 12 hours just so he wouldn't miss it. 8:30 Hoople PST rolled around... everyone had gathered, it was time to begin.

After a few words from the Secretary of Ceremonies, we began: "So NF after testing whether or not I have legitimately signed in, it seems to be true. but the real question is who will win, us or they? Judgment is in, Let the Trial Begin!"

Demi Dog and Chief Dog were read their charges, Demi Dog was first: "Demi Dog you are charged with 1 count of Voting Collusion and 1 count of LODGE Voting" to which he plead: "GUILTY NF AND GUILTY" Chief Dog was next: "Chief Dog you are charged with 1 count of Voting Collusion and 1 count of Lodge Voting, How do you plead?" He replied, "GUILTY THE FOOST."

Because of the guilty pleas and still wanting some hoop out of the trial, the Secretary of Judgment motioned for an A'Fish Dog Club Inquiry. After being sworn in by MAESTOR PROLOG, we began. Tonda started off the questions by asking the GUILTY sitches what they voted for best ausda. It was revealed that they had indeed voted for each other as best gift. Then they were asked what they voted worst sitches, and they both said PS4/iWATCH.

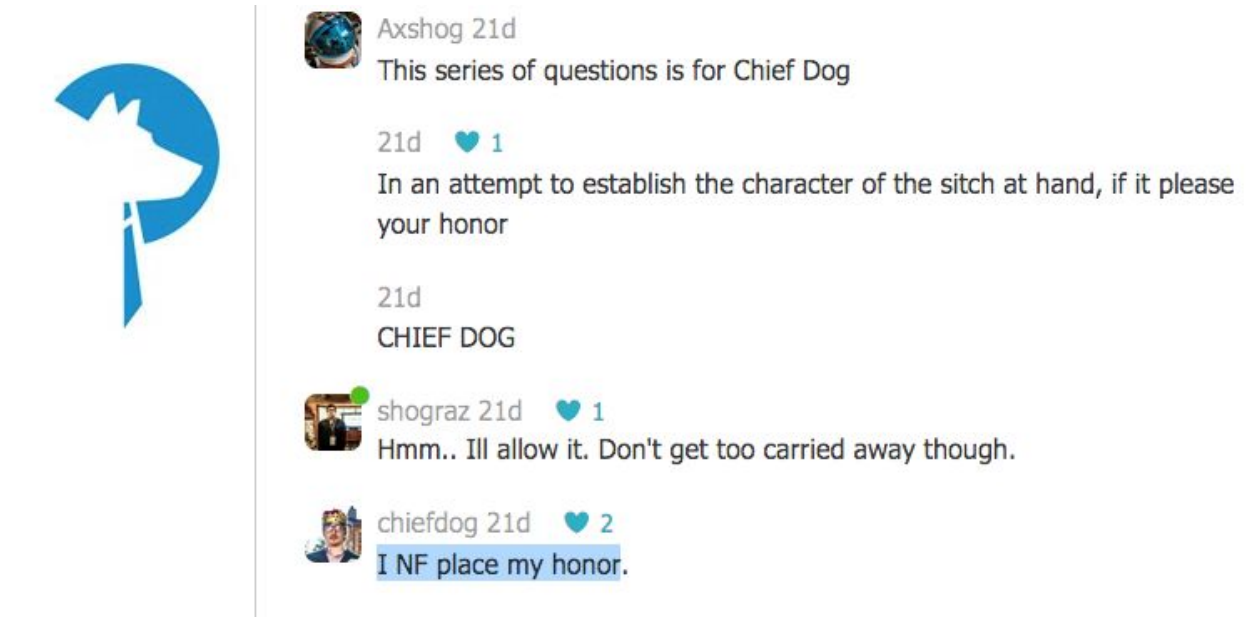

The Dogs took turns trying to get to the bottom of the sitch. Demi and Chief were asked what they valued integrity. They both hooped 10/10. I know, pretty redon considering the sitch.

Then Chief was asked why he had masterminded such a redon sitch. Why was he so scared of getting worst ausda. He replied, "It was my first Dogmass and I did not want to meijerriss myself by getting 3/4 worst sitches. I was scared the foost and decided to hoop it and I also wanted to hoop up Demi Dog so that he would also not meijerriss himself as well.”

But why did Demi hoop it? He said it was to ledge up the ride back home. Demi did NUT want an adoub sitch so he stooped to a redon level.

The questioning continued and some sitches were getting flustered.

WT was Chief thinking when he wrote this? The answer is probably the reason we had a trial in the first place, he wasn't. Too kended to know the sitch. Or could just be Chief Dog being Chief Dog, who the sitch knows?

After a round of everyone hooping questions we moved to a half-time show brought to the Dog Club by AXSHOG. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CfkWO38CEig> (If sitches are curious) Some sitches were buying this redon.

If sitches thought the first round of questioning was hardcore, they had no idea the ponita about to come.

Demi, Did getting worst in 3 categories in o'wonder cause you do bring more hoop this year?

Demi Dog 21d

It did cause me to bring more hoop this year

Tonda Bog | 21d  +2

so how the FUCK, is trying to political vote bad gifts higher so that the amateur who brought the shog feels better service dogmass?

MAESTER PROLOG 21d  1

Hardcore

LITERALLY punishing people who fuck up is how you make them up their game. If you make them feel they ledge'd it somewhat, like at least 1 person voted for my piece of shit little action figure, then maybe they think it flew

This prompted Demi Dog to spill the NF Butche's beans. It was a full on bean sitch.

Demi Dog 21d

So NF, Chief approached me with the big ponita about getting another last. I actually thought his ausda was super hooped, but I think he had the ponita over the course of all of his sitches and couldn't accurately guage the figure's hoop. I thought that it was way to awkward to say no, especially since we had hours of a car ride back together, and admittedly, I didn't think it was such a bad thing: I would have voted his in the top 3 regardless, and Chief is hooped on $$$ so I think he would have top 3'd it as well. So NF guilty of voting collusion and ashamed as hell of it

At this point you could cut the NF tension with a dull knife or even a redon spoon. The Dogs were getting antsy and angry, dropping CUSS the FOOST left and sitch right.

What score out of 10 do they actually value Integrity

shograz 21d
ok CHIEF DOG youre up

Axshog 21d ❤️ 3

chief what the fuck just hoop it

chiefdog 21d
I vote a 10 because it is important to be honest.

The question was brought back up. Sitches were NUT buying. But NF the GUILTY hoopers stuck to their story and hooped that they both thought INTEGRITY was 10/10 on their list.

The questioning continued with some jauqs and some actual ponita. The questioning came to a close. The guilty were given a chance to talk to the Club and ask for mercy or hoop some sort of shog like that.

My life kends me everyday. I hide that shog from the dogs because I want to keep things ledge. I was mostly jauqing during the dehoopnight sitch. I did not mean to adoub things. I deserve to be kended for the way I acted.

Sentencing

The dogs got together and had a long shog talk. Some sitches were OUT FOR BLOOD. Other sitches were hooping FULL CLEMENCY. The Secretary of Judgment took all these into account and called the guilty back in for their sentencing.

shograz 21d
ok.

I will now read the punishments: Demi Dog you plead guilty to 1 count of Voting Collusion and 1 count of LODGE VOTING. For these lodge acts you have, effective immediately, lost your A'Fish Dog Club Vote until the date of January 2, 2016. After that you will be on VOTING PROBATION for the following two years. The Court also fines you $10 for your lodgeness. On top of that you will receive an NF SLAP ON THE WRIST at the next hype night.

Jesog that's the sitch

shograz 21d

Chief Dog you plead guilty to 1 count of Voting Collusion and 1 count of LODGE VOTING.

For these lodge acts you will have to buy an HORCHATA for $50 from the Secretary of Judgment and drink it on video. Furthermore, seeing as you voting was just a privilege you will now not be allowed to vote during Dogmass. Furthermore, if sitches think you're adoubing it too bad for the next 2 years, they can ask the Department of Judgment to hoop a fine of $5 for every offense.

21d

"As it is written, so it shall be hooped"

If sitches have any questions they can email the Secretary of Judgment at shograz@gmail.com. That is all, now MAESTOR PROLOG hoop and closing ceremonies.

I guess thats the sitch.

An EVAC was called and that was that. The Trial of Voting Collusion came to an abrupt end.
